

I am strongly opposed to any weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law via the Consumer Banker's Association's attempt to impose the Federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana Consumers. That imposition would clearly be an attempt to benefit the banks at the expense of the consumer who has clearly said, "I do not wish to be called." If the bankers truly believe there are consumers out there yearning to receive sales calls, let them set up a means for consumers to opt in.
